7.10 Let G be the galois group of the field extension K/F, and let H be a subgroup of G. We know by the main theorem of galois theory that there exists L such that $F \subset L \subset K$ and $H = Gal(K/L)$.

7.11(b)

8.2(d)

9.12   a

         e